

ArboWebForest-ENO Mobile – quick guide

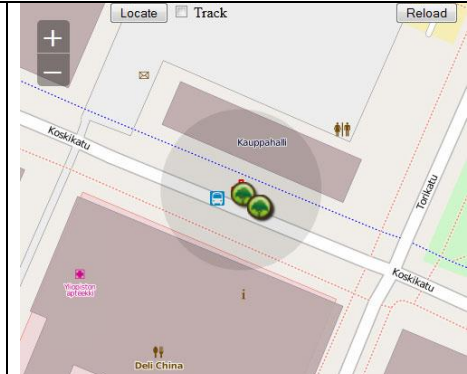

1. Start application, login using username and password and click "Sign in".
2. Collect data and send to server.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Click Photo button to take a photo (optional) - Select tree type - Select tree specie - Specify number of trees - Specify area size (optional) - Select date (current date as default) - Type description (optional) - Select visibility: Public = content is visible also for other users in web service. Private = content is visible only for me in web service. - Click "Send" to upload content to server. Wait until message "Data uploaded successfully" before starting with new point.
---	---

3. Under device's menu button you'll find options to sign out or view map with your trees.

4. Mobile map view

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Zoom in/ out using + and – buttons - Click "locate" to center map to your position (first time asks for permission) - Check "Track" to make it follow your position. - Your trees will be shown as icons on a map. All details and attached image are visible only in web service http://www.arbowebforest.com/eno.
---	--